The Man Whose Coolness in Carrying Off a Horse and Buggy Sur-Theft-Badly Beaten.

RADFORD, VA., May 19 .- (Special.)-The man who stole Cay Roup's horse and buggy last Saturday was arrested at Chilhowie, seventy miles west of this place, yesterday, and was brought here and lodged in jail to-day by Sergeant to us from C. F. Thomas, His name is P. J. Gregory. After stealing the horse and buggy he travelled west, arriving near Marion Sunday afternoon. He rode the horse to Marion Court Monday and tried to trade it off, but failed. A gentleman who knew Gregory saw an account of the theft in the Dispatch, and was sure the man had the stolen property, and he was convinced when Gregory offered to sell him the horse for $10. The gentleman told an officer named Rosenbaum of his suspicion, and Rosenbaum started out to capture Gregory, but he had departed.

HAD A FIGHT. Rosenbaum followed and soon overtook Gregory, and they had a fight, resulting Gregory, and they had a light, resulting in the escape of Gregory and his leaving the officer the horse and buggy and his hat and pistol. This was reported to a magistrate in Mation, who was on his way to Chilhowie. The Magistrate saw a man crossing the fields, and remarked that it might be the man wanted. A negro standing by said he had passed the man, and he was all bloody. The Magistrate, Birchfield, summoned several men, but none would accompany him. WENT ALONE.

He went alone, and succeeded in arrest-ing Gregory, but not before he informed Birchfield that if he had his gun he would not be taken. The prisoner was lodged in jall and the authorities Here notified. When he was brought before the Magistrate he presented a tough appearance. His head was badly cut in several places. mitted to the Magistrate that he stole the here and bugsy, and was alone when he did so. Gregory is a native of Wash-The prices say so. ington county, but has been living in Smyth county. His father was killed a few years ago in Washington county.

AN OFFICIAL VISIT.

Assistant Secretary of the Navy Roosevelt at Norfolk.

NORFOLK, VA., May 19 .- (Special.)-Hon. Theodore Roosevelt, Assistant Secretary of the Navy, arrived at the Norfolk navy-yard this morning at 8:30 o'clock on his official tour of inspection. He came down from Washington by He came down from Washington by, steamer, and was met at the dock by Admiral Brown's barge. Mr. Roosevelt breakfasted with the commandant, and at 19:30 began his tour of the yard. At that hour a salute of fifteen guns was fired in his honor by the battery at St. Helena, and the entire Marine Corps and band were drawn up to receive him. He then inspected the new gunboat Wilmington, the monitor Amphirite, and the cruiser Newark. A general view of the yard was then taken in. This afternoon the Assistant Secretary received a delegation of some fifty workceived a delegation of some fifty work-men from the various departments in the yard, who made complaints of al-leged discrimination against, and of vio-lation of Civil-Service rules by the Board of Labor Employment. The men were heard by Mr. Roosevelt one at a time. The Assistant Secretary expressed him-The Assistant Secretary expressed mar-self as highly gratified at the condition of the yard and the ships. He declined, however to express himself regarding the grisymetes that had been presented to him. Admiral Brown, commandant of the yard, however, said that there was little foundation, he thought, for the complaints. He denied any discrimi-ration in the distribution of work or nation in the distribution of work or any other abuse in the labor department. Mr. Roosevelt is accompanied by Lieutenant Elmer, as an expert. The Assistant Secretary left this afternoon for Old Point, and will inspect the government work at Newport News shipyard to-morrow.

May 19.—(Special.)—William Adkins, who

Greenwood Mention.

GREENWOOD, VA., May 19.—(Special.)

Among the arrivals at Greenwood to-day were Mr. R. G. Shaw, of Boston, Mass.; Mrs. T. M. Perkins, and Miss Phillis Langhorne, of Richmond, Va.

The fruit-growers of this section count on a large crop of peaches. The cold weather did not hurt the peach crop at this point. The apple-growers claim they will have a fine crop of Albemarle pippins. The red apples were very much damaged by the cold weather, and the crop will be light this year. Two years ago Dr. M. L. McCue shipped a large quantity of fine Albemarle pippins to Europe. Captain A. J. Wood shipped from his fruit farm at Greenwood 5.800 barrels of apples two years ago, and hopes to do as well this year.

Miss Carrie Duke Henderson is on a visit to her grandmother, Mrs. C. A. Henderson Stanning Va.

NORFOLK, VA., May 12,—(Special.)—Yesterday afternoon. John Miller, a recently-discharged employee at the Powhatan Knitting-Mills, this city, entered the carding-room at the mills, and, it is charged, disarranged the machinery in such a way that an attempt to start it would have resulted in hurling through the walls heavy masses of fron and steel, wrecking the building and destroying many, lives, as about 350 men and women are employed at the plant. Fortunately the attempt was discovered in time. Miller was arrested to-day and tried before a justice. The president of the knitting-mill company, Mr. Robinson, would not press the case, and Miller was let of with a $5 fine. Let Off With a Light Fine.

A Sad Death.

STORMONT, VA.. May 19.—(Special.)—
The remains of Mrs. Finch Baldwin reached here from Hampton this evening, and were buried in the old Bristow Cemetry, near Saluda. Mrs. Baldwin was the daughter of the late Judge L. C. Bristow, deceased. She was for several years a pupil of the Misses Coglan, of Richmond, where she made many friends. She was married on the 22d of February of this year, and hardly a month passed before she was taken with grip, and continued to decline until her death. She leaves a young and broken-hearted husband, a mother, one sister, and a brother, and a host of friends to mourn their loss.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

We desire to call attention to the fact that the Hon. J. J. Jackson, Judge of the United States Circuit Cour; in and for the District of West Virginia, granted an injunction at Charleston, W. Va., May the United States Circuit Cour; in and for the District of West Virginia, granted an injunction at Charleston, W. Va. May 5, 18%, in which he decided that our firm has the right to use the word "Pocahontas." or "Pocahontas Flat Top," in connection with coal, the Coyrt being of the opinion that we have not only the right to use the word "Pocahontas" for the purpose of indicating that our coal comes from the Pocahontas field, but also that we have the SOLE right to use said word as indicating the character of coal we sell.

In view of said decision, the trade is cautioned against infrincing upon said trade-mark "Pocahontas" as a name for designating coal in the sale thereof, and all invasion or infringements on our exclusive rights will be deait with according to law.
